Club attendance is steadily improving and the obvious support and willingness of membership points to big things in the future.

At half time Namao was leading 21 to 23. The team then settled down and fought back to win the game.

High scorer again was Randy Toutley with a 17 points.

The team seeks its first league win on Nov. 23 when they play AGT at East Glen School at 8 p.m. They expect to be idle on Sunday.

Mayor Fowler's Memo

Wanton destruction has always been one of the things that has annoyed me to no end. Whenever I have seen that which has been destroyed wantonly and for absolutely no reason or purpose I have started a slow simmer that has always developed into a small rage.

While studying the month of October report from all of our Department Heads at Town Hall I noticed with considerable concern an item in our Engineer's report indicating 21 signs had been defaced or destroyed during the month of October. Almost all of these signs are traffic signs and are there for a very specific purpose. If I were certain in my mind that all of this destruction was carried out by children in their elementary grades it is doubtful if I would bother commenting on it in this column. However, as most of the signs are erected at a height that makes it impossible for an elementary school child to reach them, this column could be considered directed at those older children who are undoubtedly responsible for the majority of the defacement. There is also little doubt in my own mind that some of the destruction was and is carried out by so called 'adults' and if this column reaches even one of those who may possibly have a guilty conscience at this time for these foolish immature actions it may be considered worthwhile.

All traffic signs are put up for a very specific purpose and all of them are intended to aid the movement of traffic in an orderly, safe manner. It is not impossible that the removal or defacement of traffic signs could be the cause of considerable hardship and heartbreak to members of the public. Imagine, if you might, a driver in St. Albert entering one of our main thorough-fares missing a stop or yield sign for the very simple reason that it has either been torn down or defaced to the point where it is unreadable. A car proceeding in either direction could conceivably collide with the driver who is unaware of the absence of a traffic sign, resulting in injury or death. The reason! somebody's childish idea of what was funny or smart in the defacement or destruction of a traffic sign.

What about an emergency call from an ambulance service in the city? The ambulance driver proceeds to St. Albert as fast as possible in order to get the patient to a hospital in Edmonton, only to find that he is mixed up on a street address because somebody has turned the street signs to the opposite direction. A Hallowe'en prank ceases to be funny when something like this happens.

Not only is there an inherent danger in the practice of sign defacement and destruction, there is also the consideration of costs involved for their repair. The money for repairing and replacing these signs, of course, comes from one place only. The Town coffers. I'm not suggesting for one second that any of our rate payers are personally responsible for this problem but I would like to suggest two points which may help reduce it. The first being a short safety lecture to our children regarding the intent and meaning of traffic and street signs. The second suggestion is to point out the responsibility of all responsible citizens to notify the Town detachment of the R.C.M.P. of any information regarding the violation of the laws as they apply to this specific matter or any other matter.

RUTH BARRY

Miss Ruth Barry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barry of St. Albert, graduated from the Royal Alexandra Hospital school of nursing on Oct. 18. Ruth took all her schooling in St. Albert attending the Paul Kane and St. Albert High schools. She will remain at the Royal Alexandra hospital.

Seven Centennial Scrolls Presented

Centennial scrolls were presented at the Nov. 14 meeting of the St. Albert town council. Those present were: Councillor Bakker, Bull, Wheatley and Gibbon, secretary-treasurer, J. M. Fleming; S. L. Billing, assistant secretary-treasurer, J. X. Woodruffe Edmonton regional planning commission, J. Roberts, building inspector, J. Maundag, town engineer, A. R. Gate, superintendent parks and recreation department and Mrs. J. Mustaklem, recording secretary.

In the absence of Mayor Fowler, Deputy Mayor Wheatley assumed the chair. The first item on the agenda was the presentation of Centennial Scrolls to the following people:

Mr. and Mrs. Bonneville who donated Motel Rooms for the Mackenzie Expedition.

Reverend Musto - President of the St. Albert Ministerial Association who conducted inter-denominational services.

Anne Kevils for the 4th Guide Company who made and distributed Bird Houses and who sponsored Indian Guides and Brownies.

Mrs. Bob Russell who accepted for Mr. Russell who served on the Centennial Committee, Aart Van Sloten who provided valuable assistance in "MacKenzie Day" Celebrations.

Marcel de Champlain for the town employees who built and decorated a town centennial float.

Mrs. Florence Lefebvre who provided valued assistance to celebrations chairman.

Deputy Mayor Wheatley extended council's congratulations to each of the participants and thanked them for the work that had been accomplished during this Centennial Year.

Mr. Fleming introduced the report from Mr. Tetarenko, Fire Chief, regarding the matter of changing the side yard requirements from four feet to three feet.

Zoning and Development Control By-law amendments will be prepared reducing the side yard requirements from four feet to three feet for detached garages and ancillary buildings.

Mr. Fleming said that no written appeals re: Local Improvements Lakeview Dr. for this assessment had been received and then asked if anyone were present who wished to lodge an appeal.

No appeals were made. Mr. Fleming stated that council's authorization to sign the agreement with C. M. H.C. for the Sewage Lagoon #3 was requested at this time. The Mayor and the secretary-treasurer will sign.

The staff were requested to submit a report to the public works committee on cost estimates for services and streets based on a uniform rate per front foot for properties in the area and design of the pavement as it would conform to the mall development.

Permanent signs be erected in public recreational buildings and spaces and these signs will read "The Town of St. Albert will not be responsible for any loss or theft of valuables."

By-law 35/67 being a by-law for the registration and keeping of dogs in St. Albert was introduced by Mr. Fleming who stated that he would like to have second and third readings of the by-law in order to provide for the $10.00 voluntary penalty even though this by-law will be completely revised very early in the new year. The by-law was passed.

Council discussed the letter and map from the Edmonton regional planning commission as well as the memorandum as circulated by Mr. Bull regarding access via Green Grove Drive. Deputy Mayor Wheatley stated that in his opinion this memorandum should be circulated to the residents of Green Grove Drive in order to ascertain their feelings about such a change. Councillor Bakker stated that he felt that the memorandum should be issued by either the Mayor's office or that of the secretary-treasurer's rather than by a particular councillor.

The letter from the E.R. P.C. and the memorandum from Mr. Bull should be referred to the public works committee with the suggestion that councillors make their views known on this subject.

The proposals regarding Green Grove Drive will be circulated to the residents of that area as far as the access is concerned from Sir Winston Churchill Ave. to the highway.

The report by Mr. Gate dealing with the swimming pool will be referred to the finance committee for recommendations and report.

Councillor Bull stated that he thought it was time that some progress was made regarding the downtown area.

The public works committee will undertake a review and updating of the central area plan.

The representative from council to the library board raised the matter of the high cost of library cards for families.

Mr. Bull stated that he wished to know the strength of the by-law dealing with snowmobiles and if it covered the school grounds. He was informed that as the school grounds are private property that the town has no jurisdiction over them.

Deputy Mayor Wheatley stated that he had noticed snowmobile tracks along the highway and he asked Mr. Fleming to enquire if the R.C.M.P. are strictly enforcing the by-law.

The matter of the R.C.M.P. buildings is to be discussed by the finance committee.

Something New at Church

Something new was added to the morning worship services in the St. Albert United Church Nov. 19. After a short address by Rev. Leonard Musto a period of ten minutes was set aside for a "Dialogue Period". This proved to be an extremely interesting innovation.

Members of the congregation were asked to rise, give their names and comment on or ask questions about, any aspect of the minister's address. This opportunity to take part in the service met with an enthusiastic response at both morning services, and in each case more would have liked to join in the discussion had time permitted.

Mr. Doan said he was gratified by the consideration given the resolutions passed at the last convention, saying this indicated that the provincial government is anxious to assist municipal districts and counties in solving the problems of the taxpayer.

In closing the president said he sincerely hoped all would derive some benefit from the convention and that they would return with a feeling of having tried to make an individual contribution to better local government.

The Farmers Union of Alberta and others brought greetings and on Nov. 14 speakers included Mr. Gerhart and Hon. Harry Strom.

Alan Brownlee, QC, and solicitor for the association gave actual cases where local governments had been sued for negligence. He touched on the communal property act and said councillors must be guided by what is good in the public interest and to always remember that public interest did not mean the requirements of a few but what would benefit the largest group.

In a warning about passing money by-laws, Mr. Brownlee used a specific case of a county wishing to build a machinery and work shop in a hurry. Original estimates showed costs of $60,000. The original by-law was drawn up and given two readings. It was then found that the $60,000 represented over five mills and could be forced to a vote which is a time-consuming procedure.

Not wanting to delay construction the county in good faith, went to the contractor and had the project divided into two phases. Phase one was well under the five mills. The by-law was now given third reading and construction started.

The by-law was protested, the case heard and the by-law set aside, the judge saying, "you are trying to do indirectly what you cannot do directly, trying to use your authority when the ratepayers should be making the decisions." He also intimated that as the by-law had been changed it really had not received first and second reading.

Mr. Brownlee said local governments really cannot go into the installment business when it comes to money by-laws. He said "good faith is not always enough, you cannot always use a super abundance of ambition without getting into trouble."

The Nov. 16 morning session saw Hadley Van Vleet of the University of Saskatchewan and Hon. Russell Patrick, minister of mines and minerals and industry and development as main speakers.

It is not all speeches and business for the delegates and visitors at the convention, they are being royally entertained by machinery companies, banks, utility and oil companies and many others.

Among things for the ladies are coffee parties, teas and a jewellery show by Prestige Jewels of Calgary and a fashion show by Mrs. Inez Christie, with gowns, mostly Klondike styles from her I & M Personalized Shoppe.

On Nov. 19 at 8:20 p.m. some 10 firemen made a 20 minute trip to the farm of Oscar Klapstien at Alcomdale where a stack of baled straw and hay was burning in the farm yard. Fire Chief Raymond McDonald reported that part of the stack was saved and no damage was done to the farm building.

Father Primeau Speaks to Scouts

The Landing Trail Boy Scout District held its annual general meeting, Nov. 17. The meeting was well attended and saw most of the Cub and Scout leaders present.

Guest speaker Father Primeau asked the audience "are we doing what the children want or are we doing what we as grown ups want the children to do?"

The annual report was read by Eric Robinson. Mr. Robinson expanded on why the decision had been made to join the Edmonton region of the Boy Scouts. Until very recently the Landing Trail District had been under the Provincial Region. Lower fees was one of the benefits derived from amalgamating with the Edmonton region. Mr. Robinson said he would like to see a post-annual meeting held in the near future to further explain this action to the parents of the Cubs and Scouts.

At present some 450 boys are active in Scouting in the Landing Trail District which includes Morinville. The following executive was elected: President Eric Page, 101 Grosvenor Blvd; vice-president, Norman Tremblay of Morinville; secretary-treasurer, Yvonne Vranas of Morinville.

MORINVILLE MEMOS

On the sick list at press time, Thomas Campbell, Mrs. Donald Valiquette.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hillman are proud parents of an eight pound eight ounce son, Christopher Charles, born on Nov. 14.

Mrs. Clarence Krauskopf has been visiting her sister and other relatives in California.

Gustave Meunier recently attended the Massey-Ferguson farm implement convention in Calgary.

On Nov. 18 cement was poured for the foundation of a new 100 x 40 building on the new large Massey-Ferguson display lot, east of the town limits. Gustave and Norman R. Meunier, plan to build a well planned new workshop, parts and sales office on the new site. Later after the utilities are installed, the land will be treed, and banks will be sloped and seeded to grass with landscaped areas.

Recently Eugene Charest had the surprise of his life, when his eldest sister, Alice whom he had not seen since he was 11 years old, 29 years ago, walked into Morinville Motors and introduced herself. She was accompanied by another sister, Mrs. Jean Driscoll of Shaunavan, Sask., and a nephew, Gerry Bellefeuille from Dollard, Sask., and Mr. Maurice Bernadette also from Dollard.

Mrs. Alice Gobell from Montreal had not visited Morinville before and a grand family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Charest. The visitors planned to proceed to B.C. to visit another brother, Camille Charest, formerly of Morinville.

On Dec. 8 after evening mass, a meeting for all parents whose children are taking French catechism in Grades 3, 4 and 5 will be held in the Convent.

The 1968 Ford. Quiet. Strong. Beautiful. A great road car.

The 1968 Ford: the newest expression of the Fords that showed themselves astoundingly strong, wonderfully quiet—test after test, drive after drive. Back in 1965, Ford showed itself even quieter than a Rolls Royce... in 1966, Ford showed its quiet strength against the finest European luxury cars... in 1967, Ford showed its rugged durability conquering the steep steps of the Los Angeles Coliseum. Now in 1968, the new generation Ford is, more than ever, a great road car.

Every one's a beauty too: the formal, elegant 2-and 4-door LTD'S. The racy convertibles. Luxurious wagons. A spirited new fastback that seats six. And behind the good looks, better ideas: power disc brakes, rear window defogger, 7 position tilt steering wheel, "no headlight" headlights (neatest disappearing trick of the year), AM Radio-StereoSonic tape system and lots more. So many features, in fact that your '68 Ford is almost custom outfitted for you.

Ford's new improved SelectShift transmission (works both manually and automatically) puts three speeds into action, for greater flexibility and livelier performance with Ford's new V-8 engines. V-8's from a brand new 302 CID powerplant... all the way up to the rugged 428. For snappy performance plus six-cylinder thrills, there's the 240 cu. in. Big Six.

Try the 1968 Fords. Quieter because they're stronger. Stronger because they're better built. And beautiful. Great road cars.

Community Hall Problems

Problems of the Community Hall being demolished were discussed at the regular meeting of the Morinville Town Council held on Oct. 24.

Those present were, Acting Mayor Ouellette, Deputy Mayor Calder, councillors Blackburn, Boddez, Champagne and Curtis.

Mssrs. Denis Himschoot, Denis Charest and Miss Colleen McDonald called on council to discuss the problem caused to the Youth Activities Committee if the Community Hall is demolished. Committee was advised that the hall will not be demolished as early as planned.

Mr. C. Newman from Alberta Housing and Urban Renewal Corporation discussed public housing. They will be requested to approve a public housing study in the Town of Morinville.

A. J. Craig was granted permission to extend his trailer court by eight stalls as requested, providing that the trailer court conforms to provincial regulations.

Accounts were submitted for payment and ordered paid.

Sturgeon Health Unit Stage Four

In previous articles I have tried to show how the three-year-old begins to widen his personal horizons and how his needs can best be met. With the four year old there isn't so much to worry about. He is reliable though unpredictable, a boaster and a fabricator, an actor, a humorist, imaginative, talkative, inquisitive, noisy, altogether less dependent and more confident.

Bodily skills are improving daily and he will proudly demonstrate newly acquired abilities; perhaps a couple of pieces of wood nailed together (don't be afraid to let him try) or a neatly poured miniature cup of tea.

Boys and girls alike are interested in the care of small babies and will lovingly administer a pretend feeding bottle to a favourite doll.

Energy abounds and has to be found an outlet. Little hands must always be occupied (be it with pencil, toys or mud) and questions must always be answered, whether simple or seemingly profound.

Speech, creativity, adaptability, fantasy and imagination progress in leaps and bounds and delight in achievement demands adult approval and praise. This is indeed a phase of adventurous enthusiasm, of personality development.

Proudly introducing Another Alberta Junior Citizen of the Centennial Year!

GLENNA HORVATH, Drayton Valley

Glenna Horvath, aged 15, saved her five brothers and sisters from death when fire destroyed their home. Glenna was babysitting the younger children when she discovered the fire. The ceiling of the children's room was ablaze. Glenna immediately woke the children and began hustling them outside. Half asleep, they kept trying to go back into the bedroom. Helped by Rex, the family dog, who led some of the children by the arm, Glenna finally got them all to safety.

We congratulate Glenna Horvath and thank Alberta's Weekly Newspaper Editors for their active participation in the Alberta Junior Citizen of the Year program, sponsored by Alberta's investor-owned electric utility companies.

This is one of a series of Junior Citizen Award announcements. Our special thanks to Ronald Smith, Editor of the Western Review and to Glenna's nominator, Mrs. Carol Shiek of Drayton Valley.

Have you ever wondered...

... what has proved the most effective weapon in the war against disease-carrying insects?

It's research. Research to identify those insects which transmit disease from animal carriers to man; to discover methods of control and to develop preventive measures. Field work on such research in our province is carried out by the Entomology and Vector Control Branch of the Alberta Department of Health. When a disease is reported, these teams trace the source of the infection, determine the area involved, then institute a control program. While this research is being carried out, warnings are posted throughout the area and residents are advised on preventive measures to be taken. Another service provided by the Branch is the identification of household insects. Any Albertan can learn the nature of and control methods for an insect infestation in his home by sending a specimen of the invaders to his city Health Department or local Health Unit. These agencies are equipped with insect control sheets issued by the Branch but, if they are not able to make identification from this information, they will forward the specimen directly to the Entomology and Vector Control Branch for positive identification and control recommendations.

... who supplies the "lady in the grey cap" to Alberta hospitals?

The lady in the grey and white uniform and cap is a Nursing Aide, trained and qualified to provide personal nursing care to patients in hospitals, institutions and homes. Her vocation is service and her duties include many of those which were formerly assumed by the trained nurse. To meet the demand for this valuable member of the nursing team, the Alberta Department of Health maintains two Schools for Nursing Aides, one in Calgary, one in Edmonton. To gain admittance to the school, an applicant must meet certain scholastic requirements, be in good health and of good character, with a pleasing personality. She must be well-groomed, be interested in people and have a strong sense of duty. Her training consists of a 40-week course, of which the first 19 weeks include lectures on such subjects as anatomy, physiology, nutrition, nursing procedures, bandaging and emergency nursing, child care and development, care of mother and child, administration of medicine, and geriatrics. Practical instruction and actual experience in bedside nursing are gained through twenty weeks' work in hospitals. The final week of the course is devoted to examinations. The lady in the grey cap is a quality product, fully qualified to assist in protecting the health of Albertans through her training at the School for Nursing Aides.

... what happens to Alberta government wards who are unable to adjust to foster home care?

Some children under government care find it impossible to fit into the regular system of foster homes. This once meant they were moved from home to home in an attempt to find the right environment with the result that the children suffered personally, academically and socially from such moves. The Homes and Institutions Branch of the Alberta Department of Public Welfare today maintains a variety of outlets for these youngsters, the latest of which is the Diagnosis and Treatment Centre in Edmonton. The first complete unit of its kind in Canada, the Centre houses twenty boys and twenty girls in two dormitories which provide complete living accommodation; plus thirty more children in three cottages, each with room for ten. The administration building contains special educational facilities, is staffed by selected teachers, and the Centre will be completely self-contained with the addition of recreational facilities to provide an outlet for the children's energy. Group Homes are another recently-developed method of housing government wards. In these, a housemother and a housefather provide a home environment for six to eight children, living in a regular house in a regular neighborhood. Children who cannot be fitted into any of these areas are often assigned to special foster homes specifically chosen by the Homes and Institutions Branch to suit the child's personality.

Each year, a group of young men and women from all over Alberta gather in Drumheller for the specific purpose of learning how to teach people to have fun. These are candidates who have been nominated by their local recreation authorities or other responsible community organizations, to attend the Recreation Leadership School held annually by the Recreation Branch of the Alberta Department of Youth. The purpose of the School is to provide persons interested in leading recreation activities with the opportunity to develop their leadership skills. Required subjects during the first year course are recreation leadership, anatomy and first aid, group games, square and round dancing and community singing, with such options as gymnastics, drama, sports and crafts. Second year students take recreation and arts workshops and social dancing, with such options as tennis, archery, swimming and outdoor recreation. On graduation from the Recreation Leadership School, the candidates are qualified to return to their communities to act as activity leaders in local recreational programs.

... how many candidates write "departmentals" each year in Alberta?

Last spring, approximately 50,000 hopefuls attempted Grade 9 and Grade 12 exams, which meant over a quarter of a million examination papers had to be finalized, distributed and marked by the Examinations Branch of the Special Services Branch, Alberta Department of Education. All examinations were prepared one year in advance by Alberta teachers. These were reviewed and, where necessary, revised by the Department with the assistance of teachers and people of the University of Alberta, then distributed to the schools where they were administered. The completed papers were returned to the Examinations Branch for scoring. The massive task of marking the exams required over 600 people, 350 of whom were examiners and the remainder clerks. With the assistance of the provincial data computer centre, result cards were mailed to the candidates for Grade 12 by the end of July, for Grade 9 by mid-August. In addition to handling departmental exams, the Examinations Branch also evaluates documents from other provinces to assess new pupils' positions in the Alberta School system.
